

Governor Carney Declares November 13-17 as American Education Week

Week recognizes educators, parents for their vital role in supporting schools

DOVER, Del. – Governor John Carney on Thursday released the following statement after signing a proclamation declaring November 13-17 as American Education Week across Delaware:

“All of Delaware’s students deserve a quality education, and an equal opportunity to succeed. American Education Week recognizes our educators, parents, staff, and community members for the vital role they all play in supporting our public schools, and their work to ensure student success. Delaware is lucky to have such great teachers, education support professions and substitute teachers, and we thank them for their commitment to our students.”
